

Important parking information for 2018 Tri-State CACS Annual Symposium this Saturday, June 23

Dear member,

Thank you very much for attending 2018 Tri-State CACS Annual Symposium.

The NEW SYMPOSIUM LOCATION is Lecture Hall 13, Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy, Rutgers University, 160 Frelinghuysen Road, Piscataway, NJ 08854. More details of the symposium can be found in the attached program.

IMPORTANT NEW PARKING LOCATION AND INSTRUCTION: Event parking available at Lots 58 and 58A, located next to Library of Science and Medicine on 165 Bevier Road, Piscataway, NJ 08854. The Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy Building is right behind the Library of Science and Medicine. Registration of your vehicle is required and free and you can register your cars by clicking the link: <https://rudots.nupark.com/events/events/register/ef0c979a-98ae-4987-a0ac-21ab90c121f0> . You can register your car ahead of time or on site by phone or online. Our board members and volunteers can also help register your vehicle when you arrive at Reception Desk. Parking is free after vehicle registration at above link (<https://rudots.nupark.com/events/events/register/ef0c979a-98ae-4987-a0ac-21ab90c121f0>)

Please bring your business cards for social networking and lottery. The registration is free and complimentary breakfast and lunch will be provided. Please kindly read the attached program schedule of the symposium.

Please kindly forward this email to your colleagues, family and friends who may be interested in attending for parking registration.

If you have any questions about the direction or the meeting schedule, please feel free to contact Yabin Lei at lei07733@yahoo.com , Li Xu at njutruly@hotmail.com and Yingchun Lu at yilu@shimadzu.com or contact us at info@tristatecacs.org or contact 201-725-1106 for direction

We are looking forward to your attendance and we wish each and every one of you get the most out of this annual symposium.

Thank you!

Best wishes,

TriStateCACS

---

---

2018 Tri-State CACS Annual Symposium
Symposium theme: The Changing Face of Chemistry: Meeting Future Challenges

Speakers: Senior R&D leaders from industry, distinguished educators from universities as well as Influential entrepreneurs

Vendor show: A vendor exhibition will be held in parallel to podium presentations. Vendors are welcome to participate.

Career opportunities: Several companies will post job openings, collect resumes and hold on-site interviews at the symposium. Please check www.tristatecacs.org for the job details.

Time: 8:30AM – 4:30 PM. June 23, 2018

NEW Location: Lecture Hall 131, Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy, Rutgers University, 160 Frelinghuysen Road, Piscataway, NJ 08854

NEW PARKING: Lots 58 and 58A, 165 Bevier Road, Piscataway, NJ 08854

PARKING REGISTRATION: <https://rudots.nupark.com/events/events/register/ef0c979a-98ae-4987-a0ac-21ab90c121f0>

Cost: Free and open to public. Free parking. Complimentary breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Registration: <http://tristatecacs.org> for registration, additional information and updates

Contact: Yingchun Lu at yilu@shimadzu.com

CACS- Tristate Chapter is a nonprofit organization that has served the Tri-state region since 1981. Its mission is to provide opportunities of self-development, learning and relationship-building for Chinese chemical professionals from the United States and Greater China in the chemical and pharmaceutical industries. The symposium has, in the past, featured speeches from and panel discussions participated by ACS presidents, corporate leaders, entrepreneurs and policy makers on topics ranging from global business and career opportunities, challenges that face the profession of chemistry, healthcare, energy, environmental issues, and the place of chemistry in humanity.