

Chinese-American Chemical Society-Tristate Chapter, American Chinese Pharmaceutical Association and Division of Bio/Pharmaceutical Sciences of SCBA Join Mini-Symposium
"Cross-talks between Academy, Industry & Business:
1. Drug Discovery and development"

Date: Saturday, November 22, 2003

Place: 003 Lewis Thomas Laboratory, Princeton University

Program at Glance

- 8:30 AM On-site Registration, Vendor setup
- 8:50 AM Welcome Remark Dr. Y. Tony Hsieh, Program chair
- 9:00 AM Mechanisms of Activation and Inhibition of Apoptosis: Lessons for Drug Discovery Professor Yigong Shi, Princeton University
- 9:30 AM Where Do New Medicines Come From? The Roles of Scientists in Academia and Industry
Dr. Ronald White, Vice President, Schering-Plough Research Institute
- 10:00 AM Design of Anticancer Prodrugs for Site-Specific Activation in Tumor Tissues Professor Longqin Hu, Rutgers University
- 10:30 AM Progress on Alpha4 Integrins, an Emerging, Highly Complex Target Class Dr. Jefferson Tilley, Sr. Research Director, Roche.
- 11:00 AM Social break
- 11:20 AM My Personal Experience as an Academician in Dealing with the Industry for the Discovery of Anti viral and Anti-cancer Drugs in my Laboratory Professor Yung-Chi Cheng, Yale University
- 11:50 AM Factors to Consider in Making a Career Move from Industrial to Business World Dr. Jonas Wang, Sycamore Ventures
- 12:20 PM Lunch

Web: www.tristatecacs.org

Cost: free

Registration: Shaoqing Chen (Roche) at 973-2354636, Haiping Wang (Schering) at 908-7403996, Guang Cao (ExxonMobil) at 908-7302103, Tianhui Xia (Aventis) at 908-2314890, Guaoqiang Shi (Merck) at 732-3550297 and Weiyi Zheng (Novartis) at 862-7785311.